Don't Let The Watchman
Sleep

The liver is the watchman of the body. So long as it keeps actively at work, there is little danger from bilious attacks or other disorders that follow a torpid liver. Don't let it lag—don't let it go to sleep.

At the first signs of a lazy, drowsy liver, take Cruel Treatment.

Would Have Permanent International Arbitration Court Established.

TAUNTON, Dec. 19.—Society and musical circles of this city and Franklin are stirred by news of the suit brought against the Rev. Dr. J. W. Foster by his wife, who asks for a separate maintenance and a divorce on the grounds of neglect and cruel and inhuman treatment.

Dr. Foster was killed the December 10, 1908, by a street car. He was about to sail for Europe and Judge Fuller has reserved his decision until the next term of court.

Butler, who is a pretty dark-eyed brunette, testified that her husband was a very kind and loving man, and under no condition. On one occasion, she said, he returned from Providence with a young woman, and she was surprised when he called her wife names. There were no other witnesses. She said that she and her office and she had to walk the doctor home, and she said that she had not seen him sufficiently to interview them.

She was a church singer in Franklin and had considerable money.

When she had a number of pupils at the house to receive instructions in the piano and kept it locked for two days.

Dr. Foster was a member of the Franklin and said he drank with his wife. His family trouble was due, he said, to irrita-

WORKER, Dec. 19.—The members of the ward committee of the Independent League will meet at their headquarters next Sunday for the purpose of talking over plans for the promotion of the League, and for the adoption of the various preliminary plans for their coming meeting to incorporate a city committee.

The committee, which will be presided over by William Crosby, leader of the League, will be purely advisory, but much will be accomplished.

Plans for a big demonstration of some kind, which will be held in the city, are asked to be present, will be talked over.

It is hoped to have as guests Thomas L. H. Smith, president of the Massachusetts gubernatorial standard-bearer and John A. Condit, the Boston mayoral candidate.

"I am greatly pleased at the progress of the League," said William Crosby, secretary of the BOSTON AMERICAN reporter today.

"We will make our power felt and will have the support of the people of the city. Here want honest government and good men in office."

XMAS SPIRIT
BOYLE BROS.

On the time-honored principle that first looks count for a great deal, the initial impression that a visitor gained, the store of Boyle Brothers on Washington street is made particularly pleasant at this holiday season.

The entering patron is struck with the Christmas decorations of laurel and cheerful red ribbon, tastefully disposed, with Xmas bells hung at advantageous points.

The attention of the patron is especially called to the sign announcing the date of the foundation of the firm—"1878," showing that it is one of the oldest houses in the city.

On the immediate right of the main en-

France is the jewelry department, with its varied lines of watches, precious stones, rings, bracelets and jewelled ornaments.

From this department the patron is attracted to the men's furnishing and clothing sections, with their complete goods. The youth's department, where the coming man may be fitted out, also bids for popular favor.

Slippers, such as shoes, leather goods in which there is a particularly large business this Christmas season; the household department, with its array of bedspreads, sheets, covers, pillow slips and table ware and all the classes of merchandise that appeal to the Christmas buyer, call for notices.

On the upper floor the women's department shows a complete line of waists in lace, lingerie, taffeta and mesaline effects. In another section are the tailor-made frocks, the elegant tailored suits and the dressy velvet gowns.

Furs occupy quite a prominent place in the trade in this line being quite brisk, of course, at this cold-weather time. The
